

North County Philanthropy Council 2020

VOLUNTEER AWARDS Celebration

CRITERIA FOR HONOREE AWARDS

North County Philanthropy Council (NCPC) is proud to host its Annual Volunteer Awards Celebration to honor and recognize individuals and organizations whose gifts of time, talent and treasure strengthen and enrich our North County communities.

Volunteer of the Year Award

Each NCPC Premier/Sustaining/Organizational member is invited and encouraged to select a “Volunteer of the Year”. This award is presented to an individual who through on-going involvement has made a significant impact on the success of the member nonprofit organization. His/her volunteer service is innovative or exemplary, helped mobilized other volunteers, and/or generated increased resources for the critical mission of the nonprofit organization.

Spirit of Carol Sigelman Award

As a tribute to the life and work of Carol Sigelman, former NCPC board member and friend, this award is presented to a development professional in North San Diego County who exemplifies the passion, integrity, wisdom and humor that Carol brought to all of us, as well as demonstrates a commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion in their development and communications activities at their nonprofit. Carol’s motto was “Get the job done – and done well”.

Corporate Philanthropy Award

This award is presented to a corporation, business, or employee-managed grant-making fund that has demonstrated outstanding civic and charitable responsibility to North County. To be considered the following must be demonstrated:

- Makes a lasting, significant and measurable impact in North County
- Holds volunteer leadership positions in North County nonprofit organizations and encourages others to take philanthropic roles on a community level
- Exhibits unusual service or generosity
- Demonstrates commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion in their company as well as in their partnerships with nonprofits
- Provides significant financial and volunteer support to North County nonprofits

Robert Krejci Standards of Excellence Award (Special Recognition)

The NCPC board recognizes at times there is an individual who has gone beyond the call of duty in devotion, service, and uniqueness of circumstances to support others in the community. This recipient also demonstrates commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion in their personal and professional life. Recipients for the Standards of Excellence Award will be selected at the discretion of the NCPC Board of Directors and this award may not necessarily be presented annually.

Nomination Process

Final selections for the annual Carol Sigelman Award, Corporate Philanthropy Award and Standards of Excellence Award will be made by the NCPC Board of Directors after careful review of nominations submitted. Awards will be given only to nominees who have met the highest standards of achievement.

Nominations will only be accepted from current NCPC members. If you are interested in membership and/or making nominations, please contact:

Sandra Alston
Managing Director
North County Philanthropy Council
Phone: 760-729-6711
Email: Sandra@ncphilanthropy.org

Submissions for YOUR Volunteer of the Year are due by September 18, 2020.

Nominations for all other awards are due by September 4, 2020.