

Successful Board Series
Part 1: Does your Board Govern or Manage?
An NCPC Webinar on March 24 from 10:30 AM – 12:00 PM

Learn the 10 Basic Responsibilities of Nonprofit Boards and how they guide both board members and staff toward understanding the difference between governance and management.

PANELISTS

Ron Mirenda - Founding Principal, Mirenda & Associates; Elaine Dodge - Board Member/Community Volunteer; Janice Kurth - Philanthropist and Community Volunteer; David Welborn - Board Chair/Philanthropist

The differences between governance and management are many. Do you know what they are, why they matter, and which approach is better suited to forming and maintaining exceptional boards? Join our distinguished panel virtually from 10:30 AM – 12:00 PM on March 24, 2021 to find out.

In this robust webinar, our panel will be sharing their vast expertise on the importance of clarifying the distinction between governing and leading – and how this distinction can help any nonprofit work more effectively, efficiently, and collaboratively to achieve its mission.

This webinar is perfect for new and experienced board members, those considering board service, Executive Directors, and anyone who regularly interacts with their board.
